

in the city for food, and cause the same to be removed at the expense of the person offering it for sale.

Sale of unsound food-stuffs misdemeanor.

Punishment.

SEC. 96. It is hereby declared a misdemeanor for any person to sell or offer for sale in the city any unsound articles for food, and any person convicted of any violation of this section shall be fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

CHAPTER XIX.

SEWERAGE.

Sewer system.

SEC. 97. That the said board of commissioners shall have power to provide, construct, establish, maintain, and operate a system of sewerage for the city, and protect and regulate the same by adequate rules and regulations, and if it shall be necessary in obtaining proper outlets to the said system to extend the same beyond the corporate limits, the board of commissioners may condemn a right of way or rights of way to and for such outlet or outlets, and the proceedings for such condemnation shall be as herein provided for opening new streets and other purposes.

Power of and proceedings for condemnation.

Enforcement of connections.

SEC. 98. That the board of commissioners may require all owners of improved property which may be located upon or near any line of said system of sewerage to connect with such sewerage all water-closets, bathtubs, lavatories, sinks, or drains upon their respective properties or premises, so that their contents may be made to empty into such sewer.

Scavengers.

SEC. 99. That the board of commissioners may by ordinance provide for the removal, by wagons or carts, all garbage, slops, and trash from the city, and when the same is not removed by the private individual in obedience to such ordinance, may require the wagons or carts to visit the houses used as residences, stores, and other places of habitation in the city, and also may require all owners or occupants of such houses, who fail to remove such garbage or trash from their premises, to have the garbage, slops, and trash ready and in convenient places and receptacles, and may charge for such removal the actual expense thereof.

Power to abate nuisances.

SEC. 100. That the board of commissioners, chief of police, commissioner of public safety, or other officer or officers, who may be designated for this purpose by said board, shall have power summarily to remove, abate, or remedy, or cause to be removed, abated, or remedied, everything in the city limits or within a mile of said limits which is dangerous or prejudicial to the public health; and the expense of such action shall be paid by the person in default, and if not paid shall be a lien upon the land or premises where the trouble arose, and shall be collected as unpaid taxes.

Expense a lien on premises.
